Sixty-third session
Item 73 (a) of the provisional agenda*
Oceans and the law of the sea

Report on the work of the United Nations Open-ended Informal Consultative Process on Oceans and the Law of the Sea at its ninth meeting

Letter dated 25 July 2008 from the Co-Chairpersons of the Consultative Process addressed to the President of the General Assembly

Corrigendum

Paragraph 10 (e)

The subparagraph should read:

(e) Recognize that illegal fishing poses a threat to the economic, social and environmental pillars of sustainable development, and that some countries stated that in their respective experiences these illegal activities were found to be run by transnational organized crime, and thus suggested that an in-depth dialogue with the relevant stakeholders at all levels be carried out about that perceived trend, with a view to producing a multidisciplinary study on the issue.
